Online Code Access: All permit endorsed contractors are required to pay an International Code Council (ICC) Digital Code Access Fee. Access information will be provided with your license. This online resource will provide access to all currently adopted codes, commentaries, and standards being offered by the ICC at a significantly discounted price and replace the selling of physical code books. A list of NCC adopted codes and amendments are available at: https://nccde.org/code. To learn more about ICC's Premium Complete Access please click here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rxPUuVsdIrE.

Business Information: Ensure you know the type of business entity you maintain (i.e. Sole Proprietorship, Corporation, LLC, Partnership, etc.) as this information is required on the NCC contractor license application.

A sole proprietor is someone who owns an unincorporated business by himself or herself. Please note, if you are the sole member of a domestic limited liability company (LLC), you are not a sole proprietor.

A business entity is a legal entity that has been filed with the DE Division of Corporations and has a Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) (i.e. Corporation, LLC, Partnership, etc.).
